n.a

 Age Differential in Statutory Retirement Age, 2005

Minimum old age pension age for men 65, for women 60.

 Pension Credit for non-contributory Periods, 2005

„Non-contributory periods credited or taken into consideration
- sickness allowance payment;
- parental leave, maternity leave;
- university study;
- caring for a dependent person;
- unemployment (for the period, in which unemployment allowance is collected);
- basic military service

Non-contributory periods shall be limited to one-third of the contribution periods.

Contributions for pension insurance during maternity and parental leave are financed by taxes (or other public sources). In case of maternity leave, the contribution is paid on the basis of the amount of maternity allowance, and in case of child care leave – the amount of nursing benefits.
